- ENG 5:15 Introduction to Exhibition. Palmyra
+ Discover the new permanent exhibition about 6:15 Palmyra – the Syrian oasis city, which in antiquity + flourished due to the caravan trade and became 7:15 a hub on the so-called Silk Roads between + East and West. Get a brief introduction before 8:15 pm exploring the exhibition yourself.
Meeting point: the Loggia. 15 min.
- 5:15 An In-Depth Look at a Work. Nero – the Last
+ Julio-Claudian
ENG 6:15 From promising golden boy to infamous tyrant:
+ the sources portray the last Julio-Claudian
7:15 emperor as a psychopath who burned down + Rome and had his mother murdered. But where 8:15 pm does fact end and fiction begin? Nero's legacy is a story of power, myth and manipulation.
Meeting point: the Loggia. 15 min.
- 5:45 An In-Depth Look at a Work. The Weight of
+ a Heart
6:45 In ancient Egypt, as a deceased on the way to the + underworld, you encountered the god of death
7:45 and embalming, Anubis, who weighed your heart
+ against the Feather of Truth and decided if you ENG 8:45 pm deserved eternal life in paradise – or if your heart would be devoured by the demon Ammut.
Meeting point: the Loggia. 15 min.
- 5:45 An In-Depth Look at a Work. Ups and Downs
+ in Legacy
6:45 The Glyptotek's founder, Carl Jacobsen, made
+ a magnificent contribution to Copenhagen's ENG 7:45 development in his time. However, some also + believed that there was another story to be told.
8:45 pm Come and hear excerpts from two very different obituaries about the charismatic brewer and art collector.
Meeting point: the loggia. 15 min.
- 5:30 Music. Tribute to a Master
+ Arjun Ganguly (cello) and Nichlas Overgaard 6:30 (guitar), students at the Royal Danish Academy
+ of Music, pay tribute to the legacy of the recently 7:30 pm deceased Per Nørgaard. Nørgård is considered one of the most influential Danish composers of the 20th century with his quirky and strange, but beautiful tonal language and unpredictable and complex rhythms.
Danish Sculpture. 15 min.
- 6:00 pm Curator Talk. Palmyra – from the Syrian desert
to the Glyptotek (DK) How did the largest Palmyra collection outside of Syria end up in Copenhagen? The funerary portraits in the exhibition tell two stories: about life and death in the ancient trading city – and about the journey that brought them here.
Archaeologist and curator Anna Wirenfeldt Minor examines Palmyra's legacy and the encounters that have shaped its cultural heritage – then and now.
The Central Hall. 30 min.
- 7:00 pm Talk. Syria Today (DK)
Come and learn about Syria's recent history, present and future with Waleed Safi, historian and journalist for Weekendavisen, with a focus on politics and culture in the Middle East.
The Central Hall. 30 min.
- 8:00 pm Conversation. Lærke Kløvedal (DK)
Hear how host of the podcast 'Det sidste måltid' (The Last Supper) Lærke Kløvedal, works with her guests on the program, when she let them co-write their own obituary. She is interviewed by Gudrun Marie Schmidt, author, journalist and podcast host at Politiken.
The Central Hall. 45 min.
- 9:00 pm Concert. JJ Paulo
The king of Danish afrobeat delivers his very own cultural melting pot when he sets the Winter Garden on fire.
The Winter Garden. 30 min.
- 10:00 pm Thank you for tonight!
