Slow

An Evening about The Power of Fashion

Welcome Beer

A Welcome Beer from Carlsberg
5:00-5:30 pm - The Winter Garden

A Taste of Antiquity
Picnic serves a menu inspired by the exhibition The Power of Fashion in the Roman Empire.

In the café
Roman-style cassoulet with beans, vegetables, Parmesan crumble and Parmesan dust – DKK 150
Add-on: Shredded confit chicken – DKK 40

In the Winter Garden
Arancini with pink peppercorn and Pecorino cream – DKK 60

Talk

The Colours of Power (DK)
Exhibition curator Cecilie Brøns introduces The Power of Fashion in the Roman Empire and explores how colours were used to signal rank, wealth, identity and belonging. She will discuss the extraction of precious pigments and the production of luxury textiles in antiquity, drawing parallels and contrasts with the language of power in fashion today.
6:00 pm - The Central Hall. 25 min.

From Ancient Fragrances to Modern Beauty (DK)
Exhibition curator Cecilie Brøns and Mette Skjærbæk, founder of Karmameju Skincare, take us on a journey from the world of ancient fragrances to modern beauty, while author Leonora Christina Skov explores the unique ability of scent to evoke memories, create atmospheres and tell stories. Moderator: Chris Pedersen, host of Popsmart on Danish radio station P1.
7.00 pm - The Central Hall. 30 min.

The Uniforms of Power (DK)
Join designer Soeren Le Schmidt, who created Queen Mary's gown for the 2024 accession of the throne, and Associate Professor Else Skjold from the Royal Danish Academy for a conversation about how clothing is used to signal authority, identity and status. Moderator: Chris Pedersen, host of Popsmart on Danish radio station P1.
8:00 pm - The Central Hall. 45 min.

Toga pop-up

Discover the story of the iconic Roman toga and get up close with ancient dress as historian Sander Funch and archaeologist Sandi Rizvic explore its significance and demonstrate how it was tied and draped
5:45 (ENG) + 6:45 + 7:45 + 8:45 PM
Hall 12. 15 min.

Workshop - Make Your Own Imperial Wreath

Follow in the footsteps of the emperors and create your own ruscus wreath inspired by the laurel wreaths of antiquity, together with STILK Copenhagen. All materials and guidance will be provided to help you get started. Please note that quantities are limited.
5:00-9:00 pm - The Loggia

Music

Soleima
Experience Soleima – a boundary-pushing artist with a distinctive identity, striking vocals and a raw attitude – taking over the Winter Garden with a sound that refuses to be put in a box.
9:00 pm - Winter Garden. 30 min.

DKDM x The Glyptotek. When Baroque Meets Antiquity
Soprano Mari Aschehoug and lutenist Nichlas Overgaard plays an intimate concert where the musical world of the Baroque meets antiquity's fascination with status, identity and self-presentation.
5:30 + 6:30 + 8:30 pm - Hall 42. 15 min.

An In-Depth Look at a Work

Introduction to The Power of Fashion in the Roman Empire
Join us for an introduction to our new exhibition on power and fashion in the Roman Empire. Discover how drapery, beautiful colours and fabulous hairstyles tell a compelling story of the era's beauty ideals and their political significance. Explore the art of self-presentation and the visual communication between those in power and the people.
5:00 + 5:45 + 6:30 (ENG) + 7:30 pm + 8:15 - The Loggia. 15 min.

From Arsenic to Goddess-Like Beauty
From precious purple dye extracted from sea snails to skin-lightening creams made with arsenic and crocodile dung, the Romans used a range of surprising ingredients to enhance their beauty and allure. Discover their beauty practices and how ideals, the body and social hierarchy were inextricably linked.
5:15 + 6:00 + 6:45 + 7:45(ENG) + 8.30 pm - The Loggia. 15 min.

Fashion in Impressionism
In Impressionist Paris, clothing was much more than fashion – it could signal class, gender, occupation and identity. We take a closer look at Berthe Morisot's The Wet Nurse and Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec's portrait of Suzanne Valadon, exploring what the women's clothing reveals.
5:15 + 6:00 + 6:45 + 7:45 + 8.30 (ENG) pm - The Information. 15 min.

Wigs, Power and Egyptian Glamour
Get up close with Egyptian hairstyles, their surprising functions and the beauty ideals that defined the look along the banks of the Nile.
5:30 + 6:15 (ENG) + 7:15 + 8:00 + 8:45 pm - The Information. 15 min.

Please note: Arrive early for the guided tours. Places are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.

Nightcap

A goodnight beer from Carlsberg
9:30-10.00 pm - Winter Garden.

Glyptoteket Carlsberg